Course Objective

Designed for those new to Buddhism, this course covers the fundamental aspects of Buddhism. Through the study of its foundational elements—teachings, rituals, and stories—this course introduces the various beliefs and practices of one of the world s major religions. Portions of the PBS documentary, “The Buddha”, will be used to enhance understanding.

Course Learning Opportunities

By the end of the course we will have had the opportunity to:

- Comprehend the historical context for and development of the Buddhist tradition
- Examine the basic beliefs and practices of Buddhism.
- Develop an understanding and appreciation for the unity and diversity of the various paths in Buddhism.

Textbook

There is no required textbook for the course. Suggested readings to further understanding:

“The Complete Idiot’s Guide to Buddhism”, Gary Gach

“Buddhism: A concise introduction”, Huston Smith

“The World s Religions”, Huston Smith

“What the Buddha Taught”, Walpola Rahula

Class Etiquette

All questions and inquiries are welcome. There is no such thing as a “silly” question or irrelevant point of view so feel free to ask questions, comment on, or even challenge the material presented in class.
