

Aloha mai,

Happy spring and YESS we are back! On behalf of the 40th Young Enthusiastic Shinshu Seekers (YESS) Camp planning committee, we are reaching out with an opportunity to support campers to engage with the Dharma and build a resilient Sangha.

If you aren't familiar with YESS Camp, it is a weekend overnight Jodo Shinshu Buddhist retreat offered to youth ages 13-23. Activities focus on cultivating skills of teamwork, leadership and communication, and contextualizing our lives within Shinran's teachings. Ministers support YESS camp by offering services and connecting with campers in a fun, informal setting. Past campers have appreciated the open environment which nurtures lifelong friendships that encourages self reflection and self expression.

This year, YESS Camp will be held May 25th-27th, structured around the theme of Daruma & Me - resilience, goal-setting, determination. We are offering advertising space in our camp booklet which will be distributed to all campers and counselors (ads will be printed in black and white). Proceeds will support airfare for campers from neighbor islands, or future iterations of YESS! Please find more information below. Mahalo nui for your support!

In gassho,
YESS Camp 40 Planning Committee
